When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

THE PORT WORKS.

INAUGURATION OF DOCK NO. 3.

The official inauguration of the ninth section of the Madero Port Works, Dock No. 3, took place on Thursday at 3 p.m. President Pellegriniwas unable to attend, but was represented by H. E. Dr. Zeballos, Minister of Foreign Affairs. Owing to the day being a holiday, the docks were crowded with sight-seers and the new dock presented a most animated appearance, due to the number of war vessels that had entered purposely for the occasion, and three large ocean steamers, the Perseo, Provence, and Paraguay having taken up their places in the dock. The new Argentine cruiser, 25 de Mayo, was moored at the top whilst the Spanish, Dutch and two British war vessels lined one side and the Italian gunboat was close to the gate; room had been left for the American war vessels but they did not put in an appearance, and there was also space left for the great Italian steamer Duchessa di Genoa, but she was detained in the Roads. All the foreign war vessels had their yards manned and their bands on board playing National airs which added to the scene. There were also numeros steam launches playing about in the dock crowded with visitors. The crowd was too great to give the names of all but we noticed the following present:—

H.E. Dr. Zeballos, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Sr. Hansen, Acting Minister of Hacienda; Mr. Herbert, H. M. Chargé d'Affaires; Mr. Anderson, Director of the London and River Plate Bank; Chevalier Boutell, Manager Trust Loan and Company; Dn. Manuel Guerrico, President of the Rural Society; Mr. Ramos Mejia, Mr. Bruce of Banda Oriental, Viscount Castelalvo, Dn Francisco Madero, ex-Vice President of the Republic; Dn. Eduardo Madero, Concessionaire of the Port Works; Col. Goldsmidt, representative of Baron Hirsch, and Madame Goldsmidt; Dr. Belaustigui, Asesor; Mr. Walker, contractor of works; Mr. Meares, Mr. Simpson, Mr. Dobson, of Hawkshaw Hayter and Dobson, Mr. Adams, Superintending Engineer of the Western Railway; Mr. and Mrs Alkaine, Mr. Wilding, Mr. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Runciman, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Alex. Kincaid, Dr. Andrews of London, Sr. Victorica, Department of Agriculture; Dn Julian Martinez, Mr. Barrow, manager of the Great Southern Railway; Dn E. Lezica, Dn F. Lezica, Messrs. E Fernandez, Low, E Madero junior, Loveday, traffic manager of the Great Southern Railway; Wright, New Gas Company; Akers, London Standard; Livock, C Lagraña, inspector of taxes; E Sundblad, J J Madero, Enrique Madero, R Pereyra Gimenez, Dr Argerich, General Bustillos, J Blaquier, J Pacheco, General E Mitre, J E Peña, and Pablo Diaz.

The official party met at the head of Dock No. 1 and took Mr. Dobson's steamer, the Condor. We steamed up docks numbers 1 and 2 and with pleasure noted that they were well filled with foreign steamers loading and discharging. Mr. Anderson showed us the new deposits with cellars so constructed that the cargo is lifted by the big cranes from the hold of the vessel and discharged into the cellars without any handling. We doubt if in any docks in Europe there are greater conveniences for discharging cargoes. Although a holiday, there was a busy air about these docks, which showed the immense business going on and how wonderfully business has improved since last November, when we last visited them.

As we entered Dock No. 3, the sailors on the yards of the foreign war-vessels cheered, and, when we reached the 25 de Mayo, a grand salute was fired in honor of the Minister—21 guns, and the National authem played.

Colonel Rivadavia, the Commander of the 25 de Mayo, stood on the gang-way and welcomed Minister Zeballos and friends on board; Rear-Admiral Solier received us all on the quarter deck, and we then went over this magnificent ship. After our survey we wound up in the Captain's cabin, where champagne and tea were served. The ship was so crowded with visitors that we were all glad to get away. Admiral Solier and Colonel Rivadavia took us all off in the steam-launch of the cruiser and we started for the British flagship Basilisk-Captain Wintz. Mr. Herbert, H. M. Chargé d'Affaires, presented the Captain and officers to the Minister, and here we found a large party of visitors on board: the vessel looked in gala-trim and reminded us of the Ruby. We met an officer on board who kindly lent us Admiral Kennedy's new book just out, which gives an account of the Ruby's visit to San Blas, and we invited Captain Wintz to make a trip with his vessel to the Bay, where he would meet a hearty welcome. Captain Wintz accompanied the Minister to the gang way and we started for the Dutch man-of-war, where the Minister, accompanied by Mr Anderson and the Admiral, made an official visit. We noticed Mr. Paats on board. We then visited the Spanish man-of-war Cristobal Colon, where the Capt. and officers were presented. The crew gave 7 cheers for the King of Spain, and then we started for the Italian man-of-war, where Dr. Zeballos made his last visit.

On each boat the Diplomatic Representative with the Captain and officers received and exchanged congratulations on the completion of another section of these great works, expressing at the same time wishes for their speedy termination.

After leaving the Italian gunboat, the party landed at the South steps in Dock No. 3. H. E. driving away to town, the rest of the party adjourning to the David Suffern, from which a large party of Messrs. Madero, Dobson and Walker's friends had witnessed the ceremony. Before the party dispersed Mr. Madero in a few appropriate words alluded to the late Sir John Hawkshaw, the engineer who designed the works, and the late Thomas A. Walker, the contractor for the same, bearing testimony to their skill and ability in initiating such a colossal undertaking. Mr. Madero also proposed the health of Mr. G. Drabble, the chairman of the Harbour Works Trust, coupling with it the name of Mr. A. G. Anderson, their representative in this country, and expressing a wish that Mr. G. Drabble would be able to visit this country and be present at the inauguration of the final section. Other toasts having been drunk the party then broke up.

A BRILLIANT SPEECH.

The following eloquent speech, brimful of sound advice for the new generation of lawyers, was delivered by President Pellegrini, on the occasion of the "colacion" of degrees. We may observe that it is neither customary nor obligatory for the President of the Republic to speak on such occasions, a circumstance that enhances the merit of the Chief Magistrate's discourse:—

Gentlemen,

In other countries and other universities it is the custom for the student to wear some characteristic dress. When he has completed his career, he changes his dress. This is a symbolic custom. The change of dress implies that the student has arrived at the age of intellectual puberty. You know how to use and handle the arms of knowledge and you take your place as soldiers of thought and truth. We, who have preceded you in this endless task, willingly open the ranks to give you our places, until the hand of time mark the hour of rest. You now leave behind you the student's career. Young doctors, you are about to enter the active existence of the citizen of the last decade of this century which saw our country rise. Several generations have passed and the task has been full of difficulty and privations. This has been for us a century of struggle, a period of embryonic life. Externally the structure is now formed but an immense labor yet remains, and much must be done to reproduce the superb model we have adopted. That is precisely the task of the next century. It is your mission. You will then be entrusted with the task of guiding the destinies of your country. Yours will be a work of patience, labor and perseverance. On you devolves the task of giving the finishing touch to the national physiognomy.

It is now more than 20 years since a young man like one of yourselves, in all the plenitude of hope and illusion, bid farewell to these halls to begin the journey up the mountain. The University, our intellectual mother, had provided him with the student's baggage, in which she had with loving care stored all that precept and advice could bestow of useful, to strengthen his mind and provide him against the hardships of the journey. She conducted him to the door of this, our common home, took him by the hand, kissed him on the forehead and pointed out the road. The student set out on his journey. Many a mile has he travelled, many are the up-hill paths he has followed; he has traversed smiling valleys; he has travelled over difficult paths and still more difficult passes. He has experienced days of brightness; he has gone through hours of darkness; he has seen many peoples and classes. He has felt his experience increase, his enthusiasm diminuish, his illusions evaporate, and wrinkles accumulate on his forehead. Years have flown by, and to-day, for the first time, he returns to the starting-point. He recalls by-gone days; he remembers the halls where he nourished his mind; the master and the companion who have disappeared, and a strange mixture of pleasurable recollections and profound melancholy fills his soul with emotion. Allow him, since you have invited him to this ceremony, to sit for one moment in the old and cherished home, to wipe from his forehead the sweat and dust of the journey, and let him, in the midst of young doctors, who are setting out on the same journey, to evoke his recollections. Let him relate what he has seen and what he has learned, that he may increase your baggage with all he can give—a portion of his own experience.

It is necessary, my young friends, when setting out on the journey, to pursue an ideal with all the purity of your souls. Public life, when developing, must be the sport of events and passions and interests, if it have not a polar star to guide it. In order to know which road you have to follow, you must know where you want to go. The secret of energy, the nerve of all our action lies in that, for with a fixed object in view, you avoid hesitation at those decisive moments when you must choose a direction. All means are good when they can be honorably employed and publicly confessed, for only disloyalty, cowardice and crime seek concealment. Obstacles must be either overcome or obviated. Only the blind knock against them. I have seen men and parties fight passionately, exhaust the violence of language, seize every means to ensure triumph, and finally meet in armed combat, and I thought such means must place chasms between brothers. But soon afterwards I saw these adversaries united in common action; those who formerly fought now assisted each other; and the note of praise drowned the noise of vituperation. This spectacle, which I have seen more than once, shewed me that in a public struggle we must use all our energy, enthusiasm and power, we must never be wanting in reciprocal respect, we must never inflict an incurable wound, nor provoke meaningless hatred. The respect for our adversary is a consequence of self-respect, for no one possesses the exclusive secret of truth and patriotism; even error, when it is sincere, should be respected, for error is human.

I have seen rapid success defraud the hopes it raised, and I have seen those who labored perseveringly and without impatience arrive with firm and certain step at the gates of success. This shews that no work is either great or useful unless fertilized by time and labor.

I have seen much enthusiasm dwindle away and opinions alter. I have witnessed the apotheosis of the vanquished, and I was convinced that the judgment of the moment is not the right one, but that he is right, who is right on the morrow. Popularity possesses the charms of the siren and leads to rocks where I have seen merit often shipwrecked. Our own history tells us that many great men have only found justice after death, and subsequent generations have had to undo bitter injustice. The multitude merely obeys the impulse of passion; it applauds that which charms it and assails that which opposes it or that what it fails to understand. Agitators and not thinkers influence it, and it easily allows itself to be deceived. There lies in the bed of its agitations an instinct of justice, which easily loses itself and nearly always exaggerates. Never look upon applause either as an object or a guide. Praise will come at the proper time if you deserve it. There is a far more certain guide, which you have within yourselves—your conscience. Follow it always; if necessary, endure suffering on its account.

In difficult or supreme moments, concentrate yourselves within yourselves: form an exact idea of your duty, and then fulfil it without hesitation. In acting thus, vanquished or vanquisher, you will always be respected. Energy and character do not consist in violence of language or action. True energy and true character are, like valor, tranquil and moderate, always on a level with exigencies, free from ostentation and oscillation.

To-morrow you will be legislators, and your greatest zeal will be to correct the vices which to-day afflict public life, and which have been and will be the cause of continuous evil. Do not fall into the mistake of seeking in written law the remedy for an evil which lies in habits, for your labor will be barren.... The civic education of the masses by means of written and spoken language, by means of constant and elevating example, in every field of action, at every moment—such is the grand mission worthy of those who enter the arena, with all the enthusiasm of first hopes and illusions. Such is the great task before you, and such the road which will lead our country to that moral and political summit, commensurate with the extent of our territory and the wealth of our resources.

A word more of advice before I conclude. That friendship which springs up in the halls of the University, between young men linked by the community of zeal and illusion, earnest study and juvenile adventures is the sentiment that best resists the vicissitudes of life. According as the years advance, that fraternal sentiment will bridge many a chasm, remove many an obstacle, and supply encouragement and assistance in those difficult moments when the mind feels disheartened. Never allow the passions of your public life to destroy this friendship, which can never be replaced. Preserve it as the treasure of intimate existence, and defend it against the destructive action of the battle of ideas and antagonistic aspirations—the condition of democratic life.

THE PORTUGAL MAILS.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

London, May 4th.

A miserable day for the Two Thousand Guineas. Dull, cold and wet. Bonovista won by a length and a half, St. Angelo 2nd and Curio 3rd. They must have been a good lot, for it is difficult to say which was the favourite. St. Angelo, perhaps, was more fancied than Bonavista, but Scarborough was the chief pick of the prophets; and there were also Persistive and Dunure. The old favourite, Orme, is still a source of mystery. Although the Duke of Westminster, in his excitement at the idea of his colt being poisoned, offered a reward of a thousand pounds for the detection of the nobbler, Mr. Loeffler, the dentist who took part of a decayed tooth out of the horse's mouth, does not believe that he was poisoned. Mr. Lewis, the veterinary surgeon, says he was. And there we are, as far as that momentous subject is concerned. It does not seem likely that Orme will show up in the Derby; for even if he is not suffering from the effects of poison, Loeffler says he will have a return of toothache a month hence, as part of the old tooth still remains in his gums whilst the new one coming up is decayed. However, Portor, the trainer, does not despair, and the horse is going on slowly but pretty well and is still a favourite for the Derby. They say that yesterday on Newmarket heath the wildest rumours were afloat as to immediate revelations of a most unexpected nature.

Her Majesty the Queen has arrived from Flushing and is reported to be in excellent health.

The Prince of Wales went over to the Marlborough Club yesterday, which was almost his first semi-public appearance in England since the death of the late Duke of Clarence. He looked extremely well. The air of the Riviera has evidently agreed with him. Sorrow has not reduced his weight—his face has recovered its cheerful expression. The Prince and Princess will not be long in England, for they are shortly going to Denmark to stay with the King and Queen for the quiet celebration of the golden wedding, which, but for the death of the Duke of Clarence, would have been the occasion of a national rejoicing.

* * *

The London Season commenced on Saturday with the Royal Academy banquet which was decidedly tame, owing to the absence of the Prince and the Princess. Mr. Balfour made rather a poor speech and the rest were still poorer; with the exception of a brilliant one made by Professor Butcher of Edinburgh. It was not reported! What a commentary on the snobbishness and vulgarity of the London press as now owned and edited.

Among the latest telegrams is the following:—

Melbourne, May 3rd.

On his return to gaol from the court yesterday evening, Deeming was ordered to put on the prison attire, and was placed in the condemned men's cell.

In order to prevent any attempt at suicide, the prisoner was put in irons. Deeming's manner was then quite cheerful, and he passed a calm night, sleeping peacefully. On waking this morning he resumed writing his biography.

It is expected that the execution will be fixed for the 16th inst. His demeanour since his conviction has been one of apparent indifference. To-day he wrote out the following statement:—

To my friends in England,—I am innocent, and you must take my word for it. I shall never have a chance to prove my innocence. My conviction was certain from the start. They meant to hang me, and I felt that I was a doomed man before the trial commenced.

He is still closely watched, in consequence of his openly-asserted intention of committing suicide if he gets the chance, but there is nothing in his manner to indicate that he feels his position.

HURLINGHAM ATHLETIC SPORTS.

Mr. Editor.

On the eve of the first Amateur Champion Athletic Meeting, ever held in South America, held, moreover, under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Association of the River Plate, under precisely similar rules to those adopted by the parent association of the British Isles, I should like to make some few remarks towards harmonizing the sympathies and feelings of the public in general.

In the first place, I have just returned from Hurlingham, where I have seen one of the finest running tracks, that it has ever been my lot to see. The 713 yards of cinder path are so level and true, that one of the competitors, who is also a cyclist, observed to me that he wished he had a 60inch bicycle on the spot, for the pleasure of a few 'spins round'. All the distances have been measured out, as also the various handicap-marks, and are duly 'staked down'; the hurdles are splendid; in the sprint-races, each competitor will have his own specially 'stringed' course; all the arrangements have been made for high, long and pole-jumps, as also for the [illegible]. At night, the opera was one hammer, shot and steeple-chase, the latter, with its water-jump in front of the grand stand, being an exceptional feature. The restaurant has been carefully looked after, and a very capital lunch we had there, everything being really excellent; the train service is much better than it used to be, and, in short everything conduces towards the success of what should be the finest athletic meeting ever witnessed in South America. The public will be the loser if it fails to profit by this exceptional opportunity of an interesting and enjoyable day's 'outing'.

And now I should like to say something on the question of 'starting' for the benefit of the competitors. There are hand books of rules, hanging on the dressing room board of the Hurlingham club, for the edification of any competitor, who wishes to know how he stands, and what licence he has. I refer him at once to page 7 of those same handbooks, and, as a 'rider' to the three rules therein existing, I make reference to a certain paragraph in the 'Badmington Library', pages 198/9, chapter headed 'Athletic Meetings', in which the author, the famous Montague Shearman, treats of the subject in a practical way. He shews the result of many stormy meetings of the Amateur Athletic Association in the old country, which was as follows:—"On one point only has the starter no discretion at all. If a competitor oversteps his mark, before the pistol is fired, the starter is bound to put him back a yard in a sprint, 2 yards in a quarter and so on." He goes on to explain that the reason of this rigid rule is that the starter cannot possibly decide whether the overstepping of the mark is accidental or intentional.

My experience as an old athlete, has been that the overstepping of the mark is the result either of extreme nervous anxiety or a distinct desire to 'cheat,' but unfortunately, the starter cannot possibly conclude at the moment, which of the two is the cause of the infraction. Therefore, having been selected, in conjunction with two others, by the Hurlingham Club, to fulfil the duties, connected with this very important department, I beg to inform all competitors, friend or stranger, that both my colleagues and myself are determined to adhere strictly to the 'letter of the law'. Every competitor will have a fair and unbiassed chance, but, should anyone overstep the mark, be it only with one foot, we shall not consider intentions.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully
Edwd. T. Christian.

TWO POOR BOYS.

Mr. Editor,

Having another sad case before me, I thought perhaps a notice in your columns would enable me to procure help in some way for the two poor boys I have at present on hand.

The mother having died in this country and the father working his way home to England, the boys are left in Buenos Ayres without home, friends or money, entirely destitute.

I should, indeed, be grateful if you could help me in this sad case.

Believe me
Very faithfully yours
Alfredo de Barritt.

P. S.—I thought perhaps some English lady or gentleman might take them as servants for house or estancia, both being able to work, and of the ages of 13 and 15 years.

RUN OF THE UNION S.S. "SCOTT."

Mr. Editor,

"Mariner" appears to be a little out of his reckoning. Southampton to Montevideo is a little over 6,000, not 7,000 miles, but perhaps the distance "back," however, is different.

Yours respectfully,
R. F. M.

ED. NOTE.—Mariner is right if he means English statute miles; 6,000 sea-miles are equal to 6,900 statute miles. He is, moreover, quite right in saying that Montevideo is (not 800 miles less) much further from England than Cape Town.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Government recently ordered an inventory to be made out of that diminutive railway, the Primer Entre-Riano with a view of selling or leasing it. The inventory has now been made out and the value of the line and all appurtenances is put down at $139,762. The line is at present being worked by Mr. Leonardo Parachú, who has a contract with government.

The Board of Public Works have issued a favorable report on the guarantee-account of the San Cristobal-Tucuman Railway. The report in question is a complete endorsement of the N. R. Board report, which we condensed in a recent issue. The rails of the line will reach Tucuman in August next, although the contract term is for a year later.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The feasts are over, and business again resumed. The Te Deum in the Cathedral was attended by all the dignitaries of the land, the Corps Diplomatique, Consuls, Senators, Deputies, general officers and Municipality. At the government-house the squeeze was greater than ever. President Pellegrini, dressed in civilian style, wore but the blue sash of office to indicate his rank; all the foreign ministers and consuls shone in their gilded uniforms. The balconies of the Government House were crowded with ladies. The review of the troops occupied over two hours; we never had such a review before; all the soldiers in their new uniforms, and as for the cavalry, the question was, where all the splendid horses came from? We, who remember the old 'mancarrones' of the cavalry of former years, could mark the wondrous improvement that has taken place in the army of late. It was a pity that the young Emperor of Germany was not standing between Pres. Pellegrini and General Roca witnessing the review. General Lavalle and his staff merit the highest praise for the excellent get-up of the troops. The crowds in the Plaza were far greater than in former years. The Sol de Mayo never shone brighter, not a vestige of the crisis was perceptible in the peoples' countenances or dress. At night the opera was one blaze of fashion. Ferrari was so carried away with 25 de Mayo enthusiasm that he gave a free tea to everyone in the theatre. At most of the principal Argentine houses there were banquets and dinner parties and thus the glorious 25th May 1892 closed. Thursday, being a church feast, was another holiday. As aurora just peeped over the Riachuelo, the guns began their salute. The programme for the day was varied and heavy. At the Orphanage of the Merced the Beneficencia ladies met to distribute the virtue prizes to the happy orphans; the president read a very capital address, hitting off the situation with admirable tact and showing that, spite of crisis and troubles, the Beneficencia Society, started 72 years ago by Rivadavia, throve, prospered and flourished, as is always the case when the moneys of public charity are entrusted to the Argentine matron. Down at the port works there was a very grand blow-out. Messrs. Madero, Walker and Dobson had half the town down there; the crowd of visitors at the docks was something extraordinary. Dock No. 3 was officially inaugurated by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, an account of which we give in another column. Balls, opera, and dinner parties wound up the day and this closes our chapter on this great National Independance feast. Not a single row occurred to mar the harmony or draw from his scabbard the policeman's sword.

The Chamber of Deputies met yesterday at 2½ p.m. punctually, as important messages were expected from the Government. A pension of $400 per month was voted in favor of the relict of Dr. Pedro Goyena. Then a very lengthy message from the Government was read, explaining the causes that led to the declaration of state of siege over the republic and producing proofs of the plot of the Radical elements. Numerous letters of Dr. Alem were read before the House, purporting to confirm the existence of the plot. The following committees were then named:—

Hacienda—Beracochea, Gilbert, Galvez, Figueroa R., Varela R.

Budget—Almada, Castillo, Leiva, Padilla, Ugarte.

Pensions etc.—Arias, Verdu, Bruchman, Meyer, Pizarro.

Immigration, colonies etc.—Abella, Ayarragaray, Castro, Paz (M) Herrera.

Public Works—Campillo, Amuchastegui, Segui, Pacheco, Villanueva.

War—Centeno, Dantas, Godoy, Lagos, Martinez.

Constitution—Gomez F. M., Gomez E. T., Olmedo, Gonzalez J. B., Villamayor.

Legislation—Balaguer, Garcia F. L., Gonnet, Figueroa, Alcorta, Magnasco.

Auxiliar de Presupuesto — Carroll, Chavarria, Garcia L., Gimenez, Roberts.

Warship and Education—Acuña, Lastra, Navaro, Rios, Soage.

Accounts—Varela R. Gilbert, Lastra.

At the close of the proceedings an appeal was lodged by several deputies to remove the state of siege.

Miss Webster's numerous friends will be delighted to hear that she gives a concert on the 3rd June next. The programme is splendid. It will be found in another column. All the fashionable world will be there, as the charming pianist is one of the greatest favourities in Buenos Ayres.

The Archbishop on Thursday assisted at the blessing of a new church at La Plata, and this explains his absence at the Beneficencia feast, which was marked by the non-attendance of a single member of the Government. President Pellegrini, we believe, was at the races, and Dr. Zeballos was down at Dock No. 3 walking arm-in-arm with Messrs. Walker and Dobson. No man can be at two places at the same time, but where were all the rest of the Government people? We should like so much to see some of these high authorities distribute the prize for humility.

H.M.S. Basilisk leaves to-day Dock No. 3 for Montevideo, and we suppose the Magpipe follows suit. There was a grand blow-out on board the flag ship on Thursday. The Captain was enveloped in friends; champagne flowed in streams, and eloquent speeches were made by the Captain, Mr. Herbert and Dr. Zeballos. On board the Spanish gunboat there was an equivalent blow-out; the speciality was the excellent sherry and the unrivalled Havannahs.

Yesterday morning all our political friends, so long absent in Montevideo, landed at the Darsena. They all looked rather well after their exile and semed to be in the best of spirits. We suppose the whole affair has blown over, and soon the gentlemen on board the Argentina will be welcomed on the Darsena.

Dr. Moreno, Argentine Minister in Montevideo, is so well pleased at the conduct of the captain and the crew of the Emperor in trying to save the unfortunates of the Solimoes, that he is getting up a subscription to present them with a gold medal. We think this steamer Emperor formerly belonged to the Southern Railway. It seems that the owner of the Emperor when he heard of the Solimoes leaving Rio went to the Minister in Montevideo and suggested that some small steamers should be sent up along the Oriental coast, as he had a presentiment that the ironclad would be lost. His presentiment proved but too true. It is one of the greatest disasters that has occurred on the Oriental coast for many years, and might have been most easily avoided if the captain had kept further off the land. The divers are at work now getting the corpses out of the ship. There is also large amount of treasure to be got out; they say 400,000 gold dollars.

Let foothall men take notice that on Sunday there will be a kick off at Belgrano, at 2 p.m., between A. C. and the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway men. We go for the railway men, as they have no night train and go to bed early. Their names are:—Knox, Gordon, Buchanan, Bridge, Fothergill, Keitch, Woffat, Caldwell, Morgan and Anderson. The Rosario Railway kickers are the following:—Goodwin, Thurman, Hunter, Singleton, Roberts, T. Whitworth, W. Whitworth, H. Collins, W. Williams and Terrier, (gaol keeper.)

Readers, the grand Boulevard is now open from Plaza Victoria to the Scotch Church in Calle Piedras. There is no charge for walking or driving through it. The finest building by far is The Chacabuco Mansions, London style and built on London money. The Lord Mayor has put up Parisian lamp-posts, and when the place is finished it will beat Oxford or Regent-Street, London. On the corner of the Boulevard and Peru. They are really too magnificent for the city, and point to the great extravagance of the Argentine ladies. Even the Paris Bon Marche cannot rival these saloons. We believe there is more money spent on ladies' dresses here than in Paris. Just imagine, one ladies tailor has, at present, an order for 300 ladies' overcoats. Who, therefore, talks now of a crisis? We pause over our table for a reply.

On Tuesday 24th inst., the convent of Sainte Union of Caballito was the scene of an interesting religious ceremony, the reception of Miss Caroline Spain, from Dublin, niece of the Rev. Father Constantine. Very Rev. Canon Terrero presided, receiving her into the order, and Father Constantine delivered a very touching and appropriate discourse. Among the clergy present were Very Rev. Father Fidelis, Father Gray, and Father Edward O'Reilly. The reverend Mother, Mm. Imelda, entertained the friends of the new religieuse, Sister Mary Lucy, at the conclusion of the ceremony.

We have to thank a number of friends for notices of the Concert for the Boy's Orphanage, we regret that, as Congress has opened, our columns are too small for them.

We want to be informed if twenty years of married life is a legal and valid excuse for a fine, big woman, afflicted with a Tittlebat Titmouse of a spouse, giving the little being a thrashing whenever she feels inclined, as we read in a late London paper that Mr. Police Magistrate Sheil had before him at Westminster a case in which Margaret Burgess, described as a determined looking woman, was accused of beating and biting her husband, a little man of meek appearance. The husband not only said that the wife had used him unmercifully, but produced a poker and broken panels, explaining that when he rushed into a back-room away from her she smashed the panels of the door with the poker. Asked what she had to urge in defence, the woman pleaded amid laughter that for twenty years she had been the prosecutor's wife. A remand was granted.

The London Secretary of Bieckert's brewery now takes charge of the establishment. This means cheap and good beer. Mr. Bieckert, the late proprietor, is in Paris.

The annual races and athletic sports came off at Hurlingham on the 25th. The winners in each race were taken by the well-known Scandinavian photographer, Mr. Adrian Lundstrom. The same artist has taken some characteristic sketches of sheep-farmihg, especially the Sheep-dip, which may be of interest to estancieros: address 521 Calle Cangallo, altos.

Villa Devoto was crowded with visitors on Wednesday and Thursday. This delightful suburb is severely handicapped by the want of an hotel or a late train at night. A well-known Spanish banker was among the visitors, and said he felt the marvellous effects of the air, but without a night train he felt it impossible to settle there.

To-morrow will he the anniversary of the Restoration of King Charles II. We fear that none of our readers will take the least interest in the fact.

In answer to R. H. O. H., we beg to say that we know nothing of the present advantages and disadvantages of Chile as a field for emigrants from other countries. Everything has been unsettled by the civil war.

The Passionist Fathers announce a grand raffle in aid of the funds of their new church in Calle Caridad. The prize is a magnificent oil portrait of the Pope, richly framed. It is the work of the well known Italian artist Signor, in the studio of the Sociedad Sud Americana de Bellas Artes, 230 Calle Florida, and was generously donated by Mr. J. T. Cochrane. There is another great attraction about this raffle, that prizes will be given as follows to those who sell the most tickets: 1st. A splendid gold watch (lady's or gentleman's), 2nd. a superbly enamelled holy water fount, set in alabaster, with miniature of Raphael's Madonna, 3rd: A rosary of lapizlazuli, with gold cross and mountings; 4th. a costly photograph album; 5th. Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary, richly bound. The magnificent picture is on view at Burgos's, Calle Florida, corner of Cangallo.

The ladies committee of the Boys' Orphanage wish to thank Mr. Barrow for his great attention in putting on a special train for the concert on last Monday night.

We regret to announce the death of Madame Rocha, mother of Dr. Dardo Rocha, ex-Governor of Buenos Ayres and founder of La Plata.

We return our best thanks to Dr. Enrique A. Klappenbach, for his great attention in sending us an invitation to the "acto extraordinario" of the Academia Literaria del Plata to be held on Sunday at the Salvador College. Dr. Celestino Pera will deliver the address.

The only foreign newspapers that published a full translation of the Presidents Message were the STANDARD and the Deutsch La Plata Zeitung. As there is great demand for this document, we beg to say that in our next packet edition we shall republish it.

Mr. Walker contractor of the Port Works has broken up his head-quarters in the Banda Oriental to come to live in town. His next step must be to get a box in the opera.

Yesterday a number of Montevidean officers were rearrested in Montevideo and sent to the Cerro. The cause of this was that when they were liberated a few days before they did not think proper to call on the President of the Banda Oriental, a mere question of politeness—nothing in this world to beat abstemiousness and politeness. Things in Montevideo in a business point of view look worse than ever. One of the fashionable brokers there has left for pastures new.

The Aconcagua's mails are expected up this morning. The French packets letters were delivered on Thursday.

President Pellegrini's speech to the students of the Faculty is worthy of the Grand Old Man. We publish it in another column and recommend it to the attention of our readers. To step from Congress Hall, where he had just delivered his address, and enter the students' Hall of the Faculty, where he was not expected, shows the great character of Dr. Pellegrini and merits our warmest applause.

Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

ON 'CHANGE.

Friday, May 27th.
The market looked lethargic this morning after the two holidays; business dragged and gold ruled weak. Twelve thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring: the price opened at $54.30, fell to 54, and closed at 54.20, say 233⅓ premium. Sovereigns were very dull: seven hundred only were sold at $16.77 to 16.82, say 233⅓ premium. The market closed dull and heavy.
Business in stocks was slow. Patriotic Bonds closed at 63½ for the end of month and 62.80 for cash. Internal Bonds were at a stand-still at 56.90. Old Gas shares were steady at 85. Catalinas at 7.90. Agricola Comercial shares at 17. La Plata Cedulas opened and closed firm at 32 for B and A, 30.40 for K and N, 30.50 for L, 30.30 for O and P.
The exchange market was very quiet; if anything, rates were slightly firmer at Tuesday's rates, but the improvement did not amount to much. Discounts were easy.
The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Mr. Fariña, the well-known Bolsa auctioneer, will sell on the 1st of June, by order of the Judge, a formidable array of stocks and shares. The list is too long for our columns. Some great bargains may be picked up at the sale.

Exchange on London was firmer this afternoon: rates were quoted at 47⅞ to 47¼d.

The gold market ruled very heavy at the second ring; ounces closed at $54, say 231¼ % premium. Nothing was done in Patriotic Bonds. La Plata Cedulas boomed, closing hard at 30.80 all round.

Cheques of the National Bank which were quoted last Tuesday at 31% discount improved suddenly to-day, closing at 24 to 25% discount. It is rumoured that the National Government will pay off the private deposists of the Bank which amount to eight or nine millions. This news requires confirmation.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank were steady at 51¼ to 52% discount. Those of the English Bank were nominal at 5 to 6% discount.

Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were in demand at 16½, say 83¼% discount. Both Cedulas and Bonos were in stirring demand to-day.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring :—

Messrs. G. Coca, G. Philpott, A. C. Lopez, B. Moen, M. H. Barbosa, R Torrontegui, George Appel, and F. Blanco have started the excellent idea of a Cosmopolitan Clerks' Association—a move which we hope will meet with the support of the Clerk gremio. Similar efforts were made on previous occasions, but they all failed, as the idea was not started on a broad basis; this time it ought to succeed.

The Caja de Conversion burned to-day $260,000 of fractionary notes unissued and bearing a wrong inscription.

We welcome back to our shores Mr J. Clark Curtin, who returned from the U. States and Europe by the Portugal. Mr. Curtin comes back full of business; he will attend to the River Plate interests of the great "Standard Oil Co." of New York, and he has also been appointed correspondent in Buenos Ayres for the Board of Underwriters of New York, in place of the late Mr. C. S. Bowers. We wish him every success.

The Minister of Finance has fixed the rate of gold at 326 for payment of Customs dues.

From the London papers by the Porgal we extract the following :—

"Were it not for the more encouraging circular sent out along with the report, the shareholders of the Central Argentine Railway might very well have been alarmed at the record for 1891. Here are the figures:—

	1891.	1890.
	£	£
Gross receipts	399,600	792,800
Net receipts	77,400	311,900

"The balance of net income being insufficient to meet fixed charges, £78,200 has to be transferred from the reserve fund, which is thereby reduced to £93,000. Another such year would wipe out the reserve fund, but things have taken a turn for the better. In the circular, which bears yesterday's date, the secretary states that the net receipts for the first three months of the present year more than covered the preferential charges for the same period, while the working for the last month showed a still further improvement. The directors look for a balance for 1892 available for reinstating the reserve fund or for dividend purposes. In May, 1891, the directors were authorized to issue terminable debentures to an amount not exceeding £500,000, but it was understood that the power should not be exercised until the whole of the share capital had been called up and expended. The authority was only asked for as a matter of precaution, and under the present improved circumstances the directors do not anticipate that it will be necessary to act upon it. The balance of capital in hand should be sufficient to finish the extension from Victoria (the junction with the Buenos Ayres Northern Railway) to Capilla del Señor, and to construct the short additional length from the latter town to a junction with the Buenos Ayres Western Section, by means of which the company will secure a through run into the Central Station at Buenos Ayres over its own system from Cordoba, Rosario and various districts served by the railway, and the full advantages of the acquisition of the Western and Buenos Ayres Northern Sections.

"Addressing the general meeting of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, at Cannon-street Hotel, Mr. Eden Colville said he did not think that they had so very much to complain of considering the circumstances. The average dividend for the last five years had been 7¼ per cent. There had been several adverse circumstances in the year under review. These were the unfortunate loss of the Moselle; the general depression of trade during the year; a very great decrease in freights; an extraordinary outbreak of yellow fever in Brazil; and the Argentine troubles—all of these telling very seriously against them. They had run 99,000 more miles than in previous years, and of course this increase was shown on both sides of the accounts. There had been an increase of £35,000 in passenger money—£16,000 of which was accounted for by the West Indian traffic, and £39,000 by the South American. Freights showed a decrease of £13,000, chiefly in the West Indies. Their increased expenditure had been £65,000, due almost entirely to the additional mileage. The yellow fever at Brazil and the fear of quarantine, &c., had made it absolutely necessary to run ships direct to Argentina and Montevideo. This additional business would probably have been profitable had it not been for the financial crisis in the Argentine. They had been able to effect a substantial reduction—from £79,500 to £65,200—in the adverse balance on the repair and renewal account. From the insurance account they were able, after allowing for the loss of the Moselle, to recommend the payment of a bonus of £1 per share for the half-year. The conduct of the crew of the Moselle after the wreck spoke well for the discipline on board. The only loss of life was that of the captain—a much valued officer. It was absolutely necessary that they should build two new screw steamships of high speed to cross the Atlantic on the mail service, and the Board recommended the issue of debentures—say £250,000—to pay for these vessels—a charge they would be able to get rid of within five years. Five or six years ago their ships were obsolete. They had since then spent about one million on putting their fleet into proper order, and had paid it all off except not quite £50,000. Mr. Kenny moved as an amendment (which he afterwards withdrew) to the adoption of the report that the paragraphs in the document about the proposed issue of debentures should be referred back to the directors for further consideration. Mr. Dence pointed out that this company was not alone in misfortune, and spoke of the over-building of ships in recent years. The report was ultimately carried, and the directors authorized to issue the debentures."

PHOSPHATIC
BAKING POWDER
BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this!"

El Directorio de la Caja de Conversion en cumplimiento de la Ley 2841 de 16 de Octubre de 1891 y de acuerdo con el Poder Ejecutivo, continua la colocacion de acciones del Banco de la Nacion Argentina por la primera serie de "diez millones de pesos moneda nacional," o sean cien mil acciones de 100$ cada una; conforme a las siguientes bases:—

1°—A los efectos de la suscricion señalanse los dias 6 a 20 del mes de Junio prox. venidero de 11 a.m. a 3 p.m., cerrandose el ultimo dia a las 4 p.m., o en cualquier dia dentro de este plazo si se hubiese llenado esta primera serie.

2°—Designanse como puntos de suscricion, las Oficinas de la Caja de Conversion, en esta Capital y las Sucursales del Banco de la Nacion Argentina en las Provincias.

3°—Los suscritores podran pagar el importe de las acciones suscritas en dinero efectivo o en titulos del Empresito Nacional Interno de 1891, los que seran recibidos por el 75 por ciento de su valor nominal.

4°—El pago de las acciones suscritas debera ser integro y al tiempo de suscribirse, recibiendo los suscritores, como constancia del pago, un certificado que acredite la forma en que se ha efectuado.

5°—En el caso de que el pedido de suscricion exceda al importe de las "cien mil acciones" a suscribirse, la adjudicacion se hara por prorrateo entre los suscritores.

6°—Los recibos que expidan las oficinas al tiempo de suscribirse, seran nominales y solo transferibles con intervencion de la Caja de Conversion, los que seran canjeados oportunamente por las acciones respectivas.

7°—Los Certificados Provisorios del Empresito Nacional Interno seran recibidos en pago de las acciones suscritas como si fueran titulos definitivos, pero unos y otros solo se recibiran cuando el 75 o/o de su valor nominal sea menor o igual al de las acciones suscritas, debiendo pagarse la diferencia en dinero efectivo.

8°—Los Certificados Provisorios por fraccion de un titulo de $100 con una o dos cuotas pagadas de $25 se recibiran como valor efectivo por la cantidad pagada con "cincuenta centavos" de mas para los de una cuota y "un peso" para los de dos, como intereses devengados en el primer trimestre vencido en 1° de Julio de 1891.

9°—Los intereses devengados por los titulos del Empresito Nacional Interno que no se hayan cobrado seran recibidos como dinero efectivo, entregando al efecto los suscritores los cupones respectivos.

10°—Los intereses devengados por los Certificados Provisorios, fuera de los determinados en la base 8°, se devolveran a los suscritores una vez cerrada la suscricion y efectuada la liquidacion correspondiente.

11°—De acuerdo con el Articulo 25 de la Ley creando el Banco de la Nacion Argentina, una vez colocada esta primera serie de acciones el Directorio Provisorio del expresado Banco procedera a sortear cinco de los Directores que cesaran y se llamara a Asamblea a los accionistas a objeto de que elijan igual numero de Directores en reemplazo de aquellos.
